Planeación Estratégica Personal Proceso administrativo v2 Advisor: Minerva Lugo Espinal Date: February 29, 2020 Cindy Paulina Muñoz Barrientos ID: 20000996 Objectives A personal strategic plan will be developed, aiming to apply the phases of the administrative process. Thus, knowledge acquired throughout the Module will be applied. Development Design a mission, vision, and values for yourself as a professional. Mission: Manage company resources through software that facilitates my performance to ensure social well-being and business growth. Vision: Be a dedicated and committed professional with any contracted company to drive its social and economic growth. Values: Responsibility, empathy, respect, dedication, tolerance, and teamwork. Conduct an FODA analysis of yourself, highlighting your five strengths, five weaknesses, five opportunities, and five threats. Strengths 1. I am empathetic towards others Opportunities 1. Learning more languages 1. Economic stability: I need to prioritize financial security and have a stable income. 2. Second career: Pursuing another degree will provide me with additional skills and knowledge, making me more competitive in the job market. 3. Effective communication: Developing good relationships with colleagues and clients is essential for success. 4. Science and technology knowledge: Staying updated on technological advancements and scientific developments will help me make informed decisions and stay relevant. 5. Work commitment: Being responsible and committed to my work tasks is crucial for achieving goals. 1. Lack of confidence: I need to work on having more faith in myself and my abilities. 2. Threats: - Constant technological evolution: The rapid pace of technological change can make it difficult to keep up with the latest developments. - Overcoming emotional challenges: It's essential to learn how to manage emotions and make decisions based on facts rather than feelings. - Job market competition: The lack of employment opportunities can be a significant challenge. - Constant legal updates: Staying informed about changing laws and regulations is necessary for professional success. - Discrimination: Dealing with discrimination in the workplace or job search is a potential obstacle. - Elevating self-esteem: Building confidence and a strong sense of self-worth can help me stand out professionally. - Financial independence: Achieving financial stability as an individual will provide me with peace of mind and freedom to pursue my goals. 1. Multilingualism: As a professional, I must be prepared to work with people from diverse linguistic backgrounds. Therefore, I should focus on learning additional languages to broaden my communication skills. 2. Dual career opportunities: By studying both Engineering Chemistry and this current course, I can leverage these skills for potential employment in a distillery or similar field. This could not only provide me with a job but also an opportunity to contribute to the growth of the company. 3. Career progression: With my experience, new language skills, and dual degrees, I might be able to secure a position in a large corporation. From there, I can work towards creating my own business focused on social welfare. 1. Training courses: - Operations management - Project planning - Financial administration - Strategic business leadership - Statistics and personnel management 2. Incentive plan: Based on my performance, I can design a program that rewards me for achieving specific goals. 3. Retirement fund: With the knowledge I'll gain from these studies, I can develop a plan to have a financial safety net for retirement. If I don't find employment, this plan will also serve as a backup to financially support myself. 1. Preventive control: Record my goals and plans to ensure I'm on track. 2. Concurrent control: Regularly assess my progress to make adjustments as needed. 3. Retroalimentation control: Evaluate whether I've achieved the desired outcomes from each step. 1. Preventive evaluation: Track my progress towards specific goals. 2. Concurrent evaluation: Regularly review how well I'm implementing strategies. 3. Retroalimentation evaluation: Assess whether the strategies have led to the desired outcomes. In conclusion, by focusing on economic stability, pursuing a second career, improving communication skills, staying updated in science and technology, being committed to work, addressing personal weaknesses, and having strategic control, I can effectively navigate professional challenges. desarrollar planes y tomar decisiones sobre como corregir errores en la mente Organizar ideas para crear un plan Dejar de ser impulsivo y seguir el plan Verificando si se han cumplido los objetivos Priorizando lo que importa más Continuar trabajando y buscando autoestima Mediar con un psicólogo Asistir a las citas y observar cómo funciona La conclusión fue que este trabajo me ayudó a identificar áreas para mejorar y crecer tanto en aspectos personales como profesionales Conociendo mis fortalezas y debilidades y aprovechando estas habilidades y oportunidades
